OPEN ON SUNDAYS

Visitors Will Be Admitted on Sabbath, But No Amusements Run.

RICHMOND, Va., Aug. 16.-The plan other feature. of Director General Barr, with the per mission of the Government, to open th gates of the Jamestown Exposition 1 visitors on Sunday, with all amusement and pay attractions closed, is meeting with approval here. The Rev. Dr. C. S. Blackwell, one of the most prominent elergymen in the Southern Baptist Convention, said:

'The total absence on the exposition grounds of all vicious and questionabl amusements and temptations which set and entice at other resorts in and Ninth.... around Norfolk would make that place to visitors morally the safest place in the community.

The exposition is most beautifully impressive and artistically instructive. All business being closed, these features would impress the visitor on the Sabbath as they do not on other days, when other sights and sounds distract the mind and eye.

Services now being held in smalle buildings for the employes could be transferred to the auditorium, and hun-dreds of visitors who would not attend religious worship otherwise would be

GOULD THE WINNER IN Y. M. C. A. TENNIS

Ezra Gould captured the Y. M. C. A tennis honors yesterday when he won the final round, downing D. H. Smith in three straight sets. The score, 6-2, 6-2, Gould's playing while not particularly brilliant, is usually consistent, and be-cause of this he was generally forecast as the winner, though he played in fast company.

The competition in the doubles was begun yesterday, four matches being played. The summaries for the first round of the doubles follow:

Brodie and Mayer defeated Everett and Brinnell, 6-3, 6-3. Valk and Reudy defeated West and

Smith, 6-3, 6-3, Lovelace and Mason defeated Dodson and Mowry, 6-4, 4-6, 6-3, Duncan and Oren defeated Lind and Pole, 6-3, 6-4.

In the consolation round of the singles the result of the drawings was as follows:

First round—R. S. Valk vs. A. G. Grinnell, B. F. Lovelace vs. C.-E. Tuller, W. K. West vs. W. Duncan, G. M. Albrecht vs. J. E. Smallwood.

Second round—W. E. Valk vs. W. N. Hall, G. M. Jones vs. F. S. Cook.

FOOLISH HUBBY TALKS IN SLEEP; NOW WIFE SUES

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 16.-Joseph T. Wallace, resident of McPherson county, Kansas, is made defendant in a unique divorce suit.

In her petition Mrs. Wall year or more addicted to the habit of talking almost incessantly and of enering very loud when not talking. nost part of a young woman of whom he is enamored, and in it he has called her "pet" and "sweeteart," and other endearing names, isked her to kiss him and begged her o run away with and marry him. Tais "love talk" when he was asleep, coupled with his snoring, Mrs. Wallace says, has deprived her of needed rest and broken her health.

HIS LIMIT.

In a western Kentucky town Ben Watson had saved the life of Myra Underhill. Miss Underhill had been overturned in a creek with a swift current, and the act of young Watson was a very heroic one. He had saved the life of the girl after she was sinking for the third time, and had barely strength to pull himself and the young woman to shallow water.

son was hailed as the real, live hero of the village.

Aunt Tabby Wilson, the oldest woman in the village, the mother of the little colony, was loud in praise of the heroism of the young man, and at once declared that Ben and Myra must get married. "Ben sayed Myra's life," she said. "and now they must marry and be happy ever afterward, just as they do it in the story books."

But Ben demurred; the arrangement did not suit him.

"Why not marry Myry, Ben?" said the old lady. "She is yours, and we must have a wedding."
"She is a nice girl all right," replied Ben, "but I don't foink we oughter marry. Seems to me," he went on, "I have done enough for Myry."—Harpey's Weekly.

STUDYING GRASSHOPPERS.

"I'm just back from a visit through Albany, N. Y., at the St. Charles. "I've got as fine a collection of grasshoppers as you ever saw, with reference to their value as an exterminator of bugs and pests that are harmful to crops. I believe that grasshoppers can be crossbred so as finally to arrive at the highest stage of perfection.

"You know, some of them are much more thorough and energetic as exterminators than others. The scheme for the farmers to use the hoppers scientifically is to breed the best of them, and care for them until it is the best time to let them loose in the fields. They are a most interesting subject for study. Their hop, or jump, is, of course, the feature from which they take their name. I've tested some of them, and found that they jump about forty times their own length. This is an average. Some of them jump further. They will compare very favorable with the fiea, which, you know, is said to have a record of jumping seventy times its length."—Milwaukee Sentinel. of jumping seventy times its '-Milwaukee Sentinel.

POST-SEASON GAME IN CHURCH LEAGUE

In a post-season game in the Sunday School yesterday, Bethany and Ninth, who fought to the finish for the peanant, met in one of the most interesting games of the season. Ninth was vicorious over the headliners by 3 to 1. Symonoski was iargely responsible for Ninth's success. He pitched gilt-edged ball and was hit but twice. Simpson was wild at critical moments and alowed his opponents to tally twice in the McDonald tapped out two of Ninth's six hits. Zannelli's fielding was an-

BLOOMINGDALE DOWNS

LAWMAKING TRIBE

Bicomingdale downed the Congresiona's in the Independence League yesterday by 6 to 4.

Tuesday, was again on the firing line, and let the Congressionals down with three hits.

Bloomingdale opened fire in the fourth, when the scoring began with Yeager's error. Marsden reached first by this mistake, moved to second on Stewart's hit, went to third on Kraemer's miscue, and tallied on a fielder's choice. Three more runs were added in quick succession before Rhoman could stem the tide. Ledge got one of his side's three hits. The score:
